BIOGRAPHY

Brooklyn-based and Boston-born multi-genre producer Chris Stath is no stranger to the ever-changing landscape of the underground dance music scene. Both his production style and live performance work range from deep/tech house to NYC hip-hop to Latin/Balearic beat, each informed by an experimental mastery of rhythm that has caught the attention of artists like Waka Flocka Flame, Twista, Styles P, Bone Thugs n' Harmony, Mickey Avalon, Andy Milonakis, and The Game. After releasing 11 solo projects in 2018 and 2019, Stath plans to continue with an ambitious collaboration and feature schedule, with expected project releases with NYC-based acts like Madame Gandhi and Connie Diiamond to be announced later in 2020.
